Hello Sir.

How are you?

PROBLEM 1:

I create initially my GitHub account to publish a software developed 100% by my self, TheCatAPI-Case1, for a work opportunity at Banco Itaú S/A (https://www.itau.com.br/) in Brazil.

The software was developed to confirm my expertise with Java Programming.

This software was created in 7 (seven) days and published at GitHub in 31-Oct-2022.

The project is public, but is not visible for any one.

PROBLEM 2:

Recently, I participate of another programming test for a new job at CEPEL (https://www.cepel.br/home/o-cepel/) in Brazil.

To confirm my expertise with C/C++, C# .Net and ASPNET, the company request the development of the application CEPEL_GEDWEB.

This software was developed 100% by my self, in 3 (three) days, and published at GitHub in 10-Feb-2025.

The project is public, but is not visible for any one, and I can't add any person to the project.

I try to add the person responsible by the test, Mr. Luiz Antônio Alves de Oliveira, D.Sc. (Account: laao1972) to the project, but GitHub show an error message.

PROBLEM 3:

I publish at GitHub in 10-Feb-2025, the software's GALAX and SPEED was developed 100% by my self, using Assembler Language Programming for the Microprocessor Zilog Z80.

The software's GALAX and SPEED are some of my old academic works, which was developed between 1989 and 1997, during the years of my Graduation in Electrical and Computer Engineer at UERJ - State University of Rio de Janeiro.

For those software's, I can't publish my Patent Certificate (in attachment) at GitHub.

I try to publish the Patent Certificate using the PDF, PNG, and JPEG formats, but the image of the Patent Certificate is always broken.

Thanks,
